

Sounds from Spain at SXSW 2017

Six bands from Spain participate in the upcoming edition of South by South West 2017 in Austin, Texas.

Sounds from Spain lends its support to South by South West with six bands from Spain: Ical, Joana Serrat, Novedades Carminha, Ramírez Exposure, Triángulo de Amor Bizarro and Yung Beef. These groups, previously chosen by the festival itself, have been agreed upon to participate by the organizations that form part of the supporting platform from a total of over 40 options auditioned.

This is the tenth consecutive year in which Sounds from Spain sponsors Spanish music in SXSW. Hinds, Macaco, Dorian, Nacho Vegas, Supersubmarina, and Lori Meyers are some of the groups that have previously played at South by Southwest. More than 15,000 music professionals will be present, including record labels, managers and industry press who will have the opportunity to attend almost 2,000 concerts. Sounds from Spain will have an official pavilion for the Spanish companies attending the festival allowing them the opportunity to meet with the most prominent international producers and record labels.

IZAL

Veterans from previous different projects, with over 10 years of experience in the music industry, Izal was founded by 5 musicians in late 2010. In only five years the group has become prominent in the Spanish indie pop-rock scene, spearheading the charts in most of the music festivals in our country.

JOANNA SERRAT

Joana Serrat is working on her third record that will undoubtedly be one of the most anticipated of the season. Her tour includes Portugal, England, Holland, Luxembourg and Belgium. Serrat can also boast being one of the most celebrated and high profile artists in Spain.

NOVEDADES CARMINHA

Novedades Carminha is a garage punk rock trio from Galicia but born in Madrid in early 2007. Their music is clearly influenced by garage and punk rock of the late 70's from the UK and USA. Their strong style clearly shows an ability to create the proper atmosphere so the audience can also form part of the performance.

RAMÍREZ EXPOSURE

Their record Young Is The New Old is an evolution from their previous work and they collaborated with Ken Stringfellow, Marc Jonson, Brian Young (The Jesus And Mary Chain, Fountains Of Wayne) and Richard Lloyd (Television). Their concert in the FIB 2016 received excellent reviews from the press.

TRIÁNGULO DE AMOR BIZARRO

2016 has been a year full of awards for their extraordinary records, excellent reviews and strong performances this group has put out "Salve Discordia," its fourth album with a smashing sound which has once more rendered the industry press at their feet.

YUNG BEEF

Born in Granada, Yung Beef moved to Marseilles and then to London where he developed his musical talent in the London hip hop underground movement. His professional career started at 24, when he created PXXR GVNG, a Spanish trap group, along with Khaled, D. Gómez and Steve Lean.
