

Uxía & Narf 2016 U.S. Tour in Boston

Uxía & Narf, two of the most important and influential artists from Galicia, Spain, tour the U.S. for the first time with Ballads of the Imaginary Galicia.

Uxía and Narf are touring the U.S. together for the first time, performing their acclaimed Bladas da Galiza imaxinaria program. Their joint musical project features classics from both musicians, including poems by such writers as Rosalía de Castro and Federico García Lorca; original compositions; and adaptations of traditional alalás, the oldest and best-known form of Galician music.

Uxía, regarded as the grande dame of Galician music, is celebrating 30 years of a career that has made her one of the most popular musicians of Galicia. Fran Pérez (“Narf”) is one of the most innovative artists from the last two decades in Galicia.

Building bridges across cultures through music, they created their repertoires after years of traveling and exchanging experiences with artists from Angola, Brazil, Argentina, Mozambique, Portugal, Cape Verde, or Guinea-Bissau.

MUSIC
BOSTON

Tue, March 29, 2016

Venue

Berk Recital Hall, Berklee College of Music, 1140 Boylston Street, Boston, MA 02215

View map

Admission

Free

More information

Berk Recital Hall

Credits

Presented by Berklee College of Music.
With support from the Embassy of Spain and SPAIN arts & culture.