ABOUT ALEX CONDE

Alex Conde is a graduate in classical music from the José Iturbi Conservatory of Music in Valencia, and in Jazz piano from el Liceu de Barcelona, in Spain. He won a scholarship to attend the prestigious Berklee College of Music in Boston, where he received the Jazz Revelation Award, and earned a degree in Jazz performance in 2009.

From a musical family, as son of Alejandro Conde, in Valencia, Spain, where he was born and raised, Conde began playing the piano at age three, and he has been a dedicated, lifelong musician since then. He has studied with contemporary jazz luminaries including George Garzone, Danilo Pérez, Dave Santoro, and Grammy Award-winners Joe Lovano, Maria Schneider, Wayne Shorter and Esperanza Spalding.
