

Escolania de Montserrat

The exceptional boy choir from the Escolania de Montserrat performs in the United States for the first time in their 800-year-old musical history.

The Escolania de Montserrat –Spain’s premier boys’ choir and one of the oldest music schools in Europe– performs in the United States for the first time on this inaugural tour.

Hailing from Benedictine Abbey and Sanctuary of Our Lady of Montserrat near Barcelona, these enchanting choristers present a concert of music from Montserrat from the Middle Ages to the present. Under the direction of Bernat Vivancos, the Escolania uses music to cross boundaries and bring peace and joy to anyone who hears them (Radio La Voz de Rusia).

Concerts are being held in New York, New Jersey, and Washington, D.C. and are sure to delight audiences both young and old.
