

José Menor at Carnegie Hall

This concert commemorates Spanish composer Enrique Granados, 100 years after his death.

José Menor is the resident pianist for the Granados Anniversary Years at the Auditori Enric Granados in Lleida, Spain, and the Granados Centenary Committee. He is a performer of Spanish music, as well as an explorer and composer of avant-garde music.

This recital is the first concert in an international commemorative concert tour performing Granados' Goyescas in Europe, Asia and the Americas, and marks Mr. Menor's Carnegie Hall solo recital debut.

MUSIC
NEW YORK

Thu, March 24, 2016

Venue

Carnegie Hall, 881 7th Ave, New York, NY 10019

View map

Admission

Buy tickets ($25)

More information

Carnegie Hall

Credits

Presented by Carnegie Hall. Photo by Ricard Alonso.