

La Benvinguda at the Chelsea Film Festival 2018

Director Carme Puché uses the fantastic genre and touches of humor to talk about human perversity: the game of wanting to be and to love oneself.

The welcome to a new city, to a new community of neighbors, is the beginning of this fantastic thriller, in which the protagonist arrives with the intention of forgetting her last relationship, a nightmare. Little does she know that she ventures into a neighborhood community where narcissism and self-esteem prevail, taking her to extremes that she cannot even imagine.
