

Martí Sales and Cristian Crusat at New Literature From Europe Festival

LITERATURE
NEW YORK

Wed, December 07–
Sat, December 10, 2016

Venue

Various venues, New York
View map

Admission

Tickets price depending on event

More information

New Literature From Europe Festival

Credits

Jointly organized by New York based European Cultural Institutes, with Institut Ramón Llull and Instituto Cervantes. Cristian Crusat was proposed by Instituto Cervantes; Martí Sales was proposed by Institut Ramón Llull.

Spanish authors Martí Sales and Cristian Crusat take part in the readings and discussions among leading and emerging literary voices from Europe, and some of America's foremost writers and critics.

The New Literature from Europe Festival of New York celebrates authors from diverse European countries. The festival has become one of New York City's top literature in translation events since its foundation in 2003.

CRISTIAN CRUSAT

Cristian Crusat was born in Málaga, Spain. He is the author of Estatuas (2006), Tranquilos en tiempo de guerra (2010), Breve teoría del viaje y el desierto (2011), and Solitario empeño (2015). In 2013, he won the European Union Prize for Literature. His essays, translations, and articles on literature have been published in a wide range of Spanish and Latin American journals. In 2012, Crusat also edited and translated El deseo de lo único. Teoría de la ficción, the critical essays of the French writer Marcel Schwob. He teaches the Spanish language and literature abroad.

His sessions:

- Narrative Authority, with Stefan Hertmans. On December 10 at 2 pm at Nuyorican Poets Cafe, 236 East 3rd St, New York, NY 10009.
- From one language to another, with Elena Alexieva, Yoko Tawada and Michael F. Moore. On December 10 at 3:30 pm at Nuyorican Poets Cafe, 236 East 3rd St, New York, NY 10009.
- In the mother tongue: A European reading, with Collin Barret, Susana Moreira, Immanuel Mifsud, Mihkel Mutt, Asle Skredderberget, Yoko Tawada and Szczepan Twardoch. On December 10 at 6 pm at Scandinavia House, 58 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016.

MARTÍ SALES

Martí Sales was born in Barcelona, Spain. He works as a freelance writer and translator. He has translated the works of John Fante, Kurt Vonnegut, Jim Dodge, Shirley Jackson, and Harold Pinter. He is the author of four books in Catalan: Huckleberry Finn (a collection of poetry published in Catalan in 2005, which won the Vila de Lloseta Poetry Prize), Dies felïços a la presó (Happy Days in Prison; prose; 2007) and Principi d'incertesa (Uncertainty Principle, prose, 2015.) The English translation of Huckleberry Finn by Elisabet Ràfols and Ona Bantjes-Ràfols, published in 2015 by the Canadian publishing house BookThug, is Sales' first work of poetry translated from Catalan into English.

His sessions:

- Page to stage, with Elena Alexieva, Stefan Hertmans and Matei Visniec. On December 7 at 6 pm at Nuyorican Poets Cafe, 236 East 3rd St, New York, NY 10009.
- Writing under the influence of music and art, with Ann Cotton, Stefan Hertmans and Krisztina Toht. On December 8 at 6:30 pm at Scandinavia House, 58 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016.
- An evening of poetry from across the European Continent, with Ann Cotton and Krisztina Toht. On December 8 at 9 pm at Nuyorican Poets Cafe, 236 East 3rd St, New York, NY 10009.