

Pablo Alborán 2022 U.S. Theater Tour in New York

MUSIC
NEW YORK

Sun, November 20, 2022

Venue

The Town Hall, 123 W 43rd St, New York, NY 10036

View map

Admission

Buy tickets

Credits

Presented by The Town Hall and Emporio Group.

Pablo Alborán, one of the today's most renowned Spanish singers, continues his 2022 U.S. Theater Tour of selected venues with a concert at The Town Hall.

Born in Málaga (Spain) in 1989, singer-songwriter Pablo Alborán's self-titled debut became Spain's best-selling album in 2011 and earned a Latin Grammy nod for Best Male Pop Vocal Album. With En Acustico, Alborán stayed 17 weeks at Number 1 on the Spanish charts with seven Platinum Discs, becoming the best-selling artist in Spain in 2011. He's collaborated with musicians from around the world, including Portuguese fado star Carminho, Mexican siblings Jesse & Joy, and Colombian troubadour Camilo.

His second album, 2012's Tanto, has been certified 10-times Platinum in Spain, with more than 400,000 copies sold. Terral, Alborán's third LP, was a number one hit on the Billboard Latin Pop Albums chart in 2014. He was nominated for a Best Latin Pop Album Grammy in 2016 for Tour Terral – Tres Noches En Las Ventas. In 2019, Alborán debuted at the legendary Royal Albert Hall in London.

Alborán's upcoming album, La Cuarta Hoja, comes out on December 2, 2022.