

Ron Lalá Theater Company: Somewhere in Quixote

PERFORMING ARTS
NEW YORK

Wed, November 16, 2016

Venue

Instituto Cervantes, 211 E 49th St, New York, NY 10017

View map

Phone: 212-308-7720

Admission

Buy tickets (general admission: $10; free for members)

More information

Instituto Cervantes New York

A band of actor-musicians from Madrid reveals all the magic of the “Don Quixote” legend in a special performance without technical or scenographic elements.

Ron Lalá is a theater and humor company that performs with live music. They combine music and original texts with their own theatrical language, resulting in a unique work of collective creation.

SOMEWHERE IN QUIXOTE (EN UN LUGAR DEL QUIJOTE)

- Directed by Yayo Cáceres.
- With Yayo Cáceres, Juan Cañas, Íñigo Echevarría, Miguel Magdalena, Daniel Rovalher and Álvaro Tato.

En un lugar del Quijote offers a light-hearted, playful and direct opportunity to learn about the creative process of the show. It engages the public in a “trial format” without technical or scenographic elements, and for a limited number of spectators.

The actors and the director perform various scenes, fragments and songs from the show, and discuss many aspects about it: staging, live music, how to adapt classic works, etc. A round of questions following the performance will open a dialogue with the spectators.

This performance is part of the monographic program Scene without borders 2016-17, focusing on the performing arts (dance, music and theater) that go beyond traditional approaches.