

Ibero-American Feel Good Short Film Festival 2020

The Iberoamerican Cultural Attachés Association presents an online showcase of short films from 13 countries, including the Spanish short film I Wish.

In order to lift everybody's spirit during these hard times, the Iberoamerican Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) presents the first Ibero-American Feel Good Short Film Festival. This online short film showcase will run for 10 days, and will offer a selection of inspiring stories from 13 Ibero American countries, including the Spanish short film I Wish.

I WISH

- Directed by Victor L. Piniel, produced by ESDIP Animation Studio, Spain, 2017, 4:42 minutes. No dialogue.
- When you don't follow your dreams, your dreams are the ones to chase you.

ABOUT AACIA

The Iberoamerican Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) is a non-profit association with the mission to promote, disseminate and preserve the heritage, culture and art of Ibero-America in the Washington, D.C. area, working actively in building bridges between Latin America, Portugal and Spain, with the United States. This mission is achieved through cultural activities that bring together a varied audience and outreach media.

The cultural activities the Association has organized showcase the cultural values of Ibero-America and the immense diversity that depicts the essence of these countries. In doing so, the events with most relevance have been the Ibero-

FILM
ONLINE

Fri, May 29–
Sun, June 07, 2020

Admission

Free. The link to all the content will be available on Iberoamerican Culture DC's Facebook page on Friday, May 29 at 5 PM EST

More information

Ibero American Feel Good Short Film Festival

Credits

Organized by the Iberoamerican Cultural Attachés Association

American Film Showcase in D.C., the annual Noche Ibero-Americana fundraiser event, and the Ibero-American Photography Exhibition.