

Ibero-American Night 2023

The Ibero-American Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) presents the sixth edition of “Ibero-American Night” – a night of food, drinks and prizes.

The Ibero-American Cultural Attachés Association’s annual fundraising gala returns with an evening of music, food, drinks, and prizes. Get ready to hit the dance floor, as well as enjoy live music, folk dances, and tango lessons.

A selection of Ibero-American traditional food will be served, including roast pork, pupusas, rice dishes, empanadas, and traditional sweets from different countries. Savor a wide variety of drinks, such as mezcal, rum, gin, beer, pisco sour, and wine at the open bar.

Every ticket holder will participate in a raffle, with a chance to win prizes, including two roundtrip airline tickets to Costa Rica, designer dresses, filigree cufflinks, alpaca scarves, handicrafts, baskets with products from across Ibero-America, and much more.

ABOUT AACIA

The Iberoamerican Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) is a non-profit 501 (C) (3) association with the mission to promote, disseminate and preserve the heritage, culture and art of IberoAmerica in the Washington, D.C. area, working actively in building bridges between Latin America, Portugal and Spain, with the United States. This mission is achieved through cultural activities that bring together a varied audience and outreach media.
