

Winter Open Doors 2023-2024 (I)

The historic Beaux-Arts mansion, once home to Spanish Ambassadors, welcomes visitors once again to explore its current exhibitions.

Enjoy the latest art installations, both inside and outside our walls. Discover the group exhibition DC.es / A gaze of Washington, DC by Spanish photographers featuring captivating photography by Spanish artists, and much more.

Art installations currently on display at the Former Residence of the Ambassadors of Spain:

INDOORS EXHIBITS

- DC.es / A Gaze of Washington DC by Spanish Photographers, is the culmination of a project that gathers the work of five Spanish artists and their personal outlooks of the world's political capital.
- Ode to Dune Plants by Lula Goce. As part of the fifth edition of Not Your Regular Wall, Spanish urban artist Lula Goce imprinted the walls of the Former Residence of the Ambassadors of Spain in Washington, DC with her artistic proposal, Ode to Dune Plants.

OUTDOORS EXHIBITS

- Lideresas by Ana Amado. Lideresas is the new work of Spanish artist Ana Amado that recreates historical photographs of male leaders, displayed at the fence of the Embassy of Spain's Cultural Office.
- Spain's EU Council Presidency Mural. On the occasion of Spain's Presidency of the EU Council, the Cultural Office of the Embassy of Spain in Washington, D.C. presents a banner with a graphic design to show the union between Spain and the EU, designed by democràcia@ estudio.
- Not Only What, but Also How offers a review of each of the 17 Sustainable

VISUAL ARTS
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Fri, December 15–
Sun, December 17, 2023

Venue

Former Residence of the Ambassadors of Spain, 2801 16th St NW, Washington, DC 20009

View map

Admission

Free, RSVP. Reservations are encouraged but not mandatory.

Credits

Presented by the Cultural Office of the Embassy of Spain in Washington, D.C.

Development Goals conducted by Spanish artists and organizations that will provide the opportunity to take a closer look at the 2030 Agenda. All the artistic proposals will be displayed monthly in the garden of the Former Residence of the Ambassadors of Spain.

- La Mujer del Alféizar by Carmen Segovia. Spanish illustrator Carmen Segovia explores the idea of returning to the outside world in this third intervention on the windows of the Former Residence of the Ambassadors of Spain in Washington, D.C.

PLAN YOUR VISIT

- On Friday , December 15, from 5:30 pm to 8:30 pm.
- On Saturday, December 16, from 10:30 am to 1:30 pm.
- On Sunday, December 17, from 10:30 am to 1:30 pm.